

BIOGRAPHY

Bruce L. Mailman, Esq.

Mailman & Kara, LLC

Mr. Mailman is a native of California, and a graduate of University of California Hastings School of Law, where he served on the Hastings Law Journal and also was a student extern at the California Supreme Court. He was admitted to practice in California in 1988, shortly before relocating to Saipan with Ms. Kara. He entered private practice shortly after arriving on Saipan, and in 2005 founded the law firm known as Mailman & Kara, LLC. He is vice chair of the CNMI Bar Association's Disciplinary Committee and a member the CNMI's Law Revision Commission. He was a founding member of the State Rehabilitation Advisory Council and was a participant in the Superior Court's Juvenile Rules Committee, which drafted the CNMI's Juvenile Justice Act of 2008. He is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association and the American Bar Association. He previously served as administrative hearing officer for the CNMI's Workers' Compensation Commission. In addition to immigration, he has for many years advised clients on due diligence, real property transactions, business formation and corporate matters; and regularly serves as court-appointed guardian ad litem for juveniles.

Mailman & Kara, LLC

Mailman & Kara, LLC is a general practice law firm that focuses on United States immigration, business and financial issues, real property and due diligence investigations. Mr. Mailman and Ms. Kara publish Immigration Forum, a newspaper column on immigration issues.