

BIOGRAPHY

Teri Alexander

Special Agent In Charge, Internal Revenue Service, Criminal Investigation, Seattle Field Office

Teri Alexander is the current Special Agent In Charge for the IRS Criminal Investigation for the Seattle Field Office. The Seattle Field Office is comprised of Guam, CNMI, Hawaii, Alaska, Oregon, and Washington. Prior to this assignment, SAC Alexander was the Director, Special Investigative Techniques section out of Washington DC from 2012–2014 where she had lead oversight responsibilities for the national undercover program as well as the confidential informant/witness program and other specialized investigative techniques. SAC Alexander previously served as the Assistant Special Agent In Charge for the Seattle Field Office from 2009–2012. SAC Alexander served on the Director, Field Operations staff as a senior analyst during the period of 2007–2009. She was a supervisory special agent in the Denver Field Office from 2003-2007 and served as a special agent from 1994-2003. Prior to joining the IRS, SAC Alexander was an officer in the United States Marine Corps.