2 Commonwealth's Marine Sovereignty Act of 1980 (2 CMC §1101 et seq.) and the Submerged Lands
3 Act (2 CMC §1211 et seq.) to be preempted by federal law and issued the judgment on this matter on 4 August 8, 2003 ("Judgment"); and

5 WHEREAS, the CNMI has appealed the Judgment to the United States Court of Appeals for

11 Commonwealth and the United States of America hereby stipulate and agree to a partial and limited
12 stay of the Judgment subject to the following conditions:

- 14 1) That a limited stay of the Judgment should be entered, and that said stay will allow 15 CNMI to enforce local laws applicable to fish, wildlife, and coral reef protection, public 16 health and safety, immigration, and criminal conduct that were in effect in the 17 Commonwealth on August 6, 2003 in the geographical area of waters seaward of the 24

25 Federal Law," of August 7, 2003 as well as the District Court's Errata of August 11, 2003 to the extent that the August 7

1 geographical area, or to act contrary to any federal law which expressly applies to these
2 waters, and submerged lands situated thereunder.

3 2) That the stay referenced in Paragraph 1 shall remain in effect until the earliest to occur
4 of the following events:

5 a. A judgment is rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction declaring that the 6 District Court's Judgment would, in the absence of a stay, not preclude the CNMI
7 from enforcing the local CNMI laws referred to in Paragraph 1 above in the 8 geographical area of waters seaward of the low-water mark on the CNMI's
9 coastlines, that is, the submerged lands and the waters overlaying them, to a point

12 appropriate reservations) of the lands covered by tidal waters from mean high tide
13 seaward of the Commonwealth's coastlines to a point three (3) nautical miles 14 therefrom; or
15

16 c. The Ninth Circuit issues its mandate in this matter.

17 3) That the United States is entering into this Stipulation for the limited stay referenced in 18 1) above without conceding that the Commonwealth would be entitled to a stay pending
19 appeal in the absence of this Stipulation;
20

21 4) That nothing in this Stipulation may be cited as evidence in support of a claim or 22 argument that the CNMI is likely to succeed on the merits or suffer irreparable harm in 23 the absence of a stay of the District Court's Judgment;
26

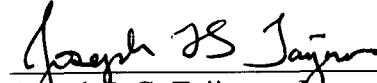

1           5)     That if this stipulated request for a limited stay is granted by the Court, no other stay
2                 request will be filed by the CNMI concerning the District Court's Judgment pending

4                 requested herein will be sought except by stipulation between the CNMI and the United 5                 States.

6           6)     The instant Stay shall be applicable and limited to three (3) nautical miles of submerged
7                 lands, and waters overlaying them, seaward of the low water mark in the 8                 Commonwealth and shall not operate or be construed to be a waiver of either parties'
9                 rights. Nothing in this Paragraph 6 or in Paragraph 1 shall affect the Commonwealth's
10                authority, consistent with Section 306(a) of the Magnuson Stevens Fishery
11                Conservation and Management Act, 16 U.S.C. § 1856(a), to conserve living marine
