

BIOGRAPHY

Jane Mack

Directing Attorney, Micronesian Legal Services Corporation

Jane Mack is the Directing Attorney of the Marianas Office of Micronesian Legal Services Corporation. As an attorney for MLSC, a private non-profit organization, she represents low-income clients in civil cases encompassing a wide range of subjects and services. She served as a Special Judge for the Commonwealth Judiciary from 1993-1999. She previously worked as a staff attorney for Cleveland Legal Aid Society. She earned her JD from University of Kansas and her BA from Miami University (Ohio). In addition to her legal work, she has been active in community organizations and activities, including Friends of the Arts, Thespians of the Western Pacific Islands, Friends of the Monument and many others.