) GENERAL ORDER NO. 4
)
PRESENTENCE REPORTS)
_____)

The Probation Department shall prepare its presentence investigation reports in two sections -- the first to embrace everything but the recommendations of the Department as to sentence and the second to contain the recommendation of the Department as to sentence. The first section of the report may, in the discretion of the Department, be disclosed to counsel for the defendant. The second section shall be marked "confidential" and submitted to the sentencing judge only. Under no circumstances shall the report or an oral version of its contents be disclosed to anyone without a specific order from the court.
