

BIOGRAPHY

Catherine J. Cachero, Esq.

Marianas Legal Strategy Group LLC

Catherine Cachero is of counsel in the firm. Ms. Cachero concentrates her practice on commercial litigation and alternative dispute resolution. She also practices in the areas of real estate litigation, insurance defense, procurement law, employment law and employment discrimination litigation.

Before joining the firm, Ms. Cachero was an associate in the Honolulu office of Carlsmith Ball, LLP. Prior to attending law school, Ms. Cachero worked as a Legal Assistant & Coordinator at Shearman & Sterling in New York, where her work focused on high-profile mergers, acquisitions and complex antitrust litigation.

During college and law school, Ms. Cachero was a law clerk and/or fellow in various non-profit organizations and law firms located in Japan, Cambodia, the Philippines, and Hungary, researching and helping resolve various social and legal issues. Having spent her early years in the Philippines, grown up in Hawaii, and then worked and volunteered in New York, Asia, and Europe, Ms. Cachero brings unique experience and perspective to her practice.

Source: Marianas Legal Strategy Group LLC
<http://mlsg.law/cachero.html>