

BIOGRAPHY

Dean Vincent A. Manglona

Associate, Civile & Tang, PLLC.

Dean Vincent A. Manglona is an associate at Civile & Tang, PLLC, a Guam law firm. Dean recently passed the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) exam and is awaiting his CPA licensure.

Dean earned a B.S. in Accounting from Marquette University in 2005, and received his J.D. from the University of New Mexico School of Law in 2008. He is admitted to practice in New Mexico, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. District Court for the Northern Mariana Islands, and the U.S. Tax Court.

He handles various local and federal tax matters, in addition to estate planning, probate, and business and tax litigation. Prior to joining Civile & Tang, Dean served as In-House Counsel for the NMI Settlement Fund (2014-2017). He clerked at the Superior Court of Guam and at the Supreme Court of Guam (2012-2014), and was an associate attorney at the Sanchez, Mowrer & Desiderio, P.C. law firm in Albuquerque, New Mexico (2008-2012), where he handled state and federal tax controversies, in addition to tax-exempt organizations, estate planning, and business litigation.

When not practicing law, Dean dedicates his time serving as a board member of the Guam Basketball Confederation and as Secretary of the Father Dueñas Memorial School Alumni Association Board. He also serves on the Guam Bar Association's Program and Public Relations Committee and the Guam Law Week Committee.

Dean hails from the beautiful island of Rota.